

THE ICKWORTH

Wine List

With the great assistance of our wine supplier Milton Sandford, we have put together a unique mix of both traditional and new world wines. We would always recommend a wine to suit the style of the food and in this regard we have listed a larger range of wines available by the glass so that you are able to enjoy a glass of wine that best suits the food that you have chosen.

We hope that you enjoy your dining experience, Paulo our food & beverage Manager and his Sommelier Jose would be happy to discuss your choices and we trust that your choice will enhance and broaden your dining experience.

Allergen Advice

Virtually all wines contain sulphates either naturally or added in small doses as a preservative.
